The Burbank Channel Wins Two Golden Mike Awards

“Best Business and Consumer Reporting”
“Best News Videography of a Hard News Story”

BURBANK, Calif. (January 28, 2014) – The Radio & Television News Association of Southern California (RTNA) honored The Burbank Channel (TBC), the City of Burbank’s Government TV channel, with two Golden Mike Awards during a ceremony in Universal City Saturday night.

Both awards were garnered by TBC Station Manager/Sr. Producer Peter Musurlian for his reporting in “Burbank On Demand,” a magazine style show that features City of Burbank services and unique stories regarding people and places in the Media Capital of the World.

The RTNA honored Musurlian for Best Videography of a Hard News Story for a segment that focused on the Burbank Water and Power power-line-climbing competitors at the annual Lineman’s Rodeo.

Musurlian’s in-depth look at the economy of Downtown Burbank, “Organic Business Growth,” won in the category of Best Television Business and Consumer Reporting.
